Your Speaker

Bill Eckert is a nationally recognized financial educator, author, and speaker. Since 1987, Bill has counseled over 1,000 families on advanced strategies to help increase their incomes and reduce their taxes. In many cases, families have eliminated capital gains and estate taxes. Bill has conducted presentations across the country about “Wealth Accumulation, Distribution, and Preservation Strategies.” This presentation has been viewed by over 15,000 people across the United States and Canada and is consistently rated “the finest!” Hundreds of attorneys, accountants, financial advisors, and philanthropic professionals have all benefited from his instruction. Bill is a warm and gifted communicator, who has a passion for helping people think about their wealth from a new perspective ... showing them how they can leave a legacy of not just their money, but also of their values and significant influence in their community. Bill is from Kansas City. He is a Rockhurst High School and University of Kansas graduate. Bill lives with his wife, Shanthy in Leawood, KS, and they enjoy time with their four children, Ryan, Anisha, Zack, and Nick.

Don’t miss this opportunity to hear one of the nation’s most knowledgeable speakers on income tax reduction, capital gains, and estate tax elimination.
