Little Sisters of the Poor – Jeanne Jugan Center

...serving the elderly poor in the Greater Kansas City area since 1882.

The Little Sisters of the Poor have accompanied and been a part of the final journey of nearly 5,500 Residents since their arrival in Kansas City. They cared for and prayed with each one of the Residents and their families until they were called Home. Although the final days are a time of sadness for loved ones, it is also a time of joy and hope for Eternal life.

The Little Sisters are not only called to accompany the dying, they are also called to provide for the living. They love, care for, and strive to make each one of the elderly Residents happy in the spirit of Saint Jeanne Jugan – providing for their unique spiritual, social and physical needs with kindness, respect, and dignity. Little Sisters of the Poor accepts needy men and women of all faiths and nationalities.
